The image shows the interior of a yacht cabin. On the left, there is a wooden desk with a white lamp, a small decorative coral, and some papers. The desk is built into the cabin's structure. To the right of the desk is a large window or glass door that looks out onto a wooden deck and a rocky shore. On the deck, there is a small table and chairs. In the foreground, there is a white sofa and a glass coffee table with some items on it. The cabin has a warm, wooden interior.
