The Dominator 62 offers an extraordinary high quality in all its components: some of them are easily recognizable, while others are embedded in the construction and technical parts, but never missing. Its exterior has several spaces where you can sunbathe or simply relax, as the Flying Bridge offering comfortable cushions, where there is also a second control station, at the bow we can find another comfortable cushion for two people; On the main deck there is a large table where guests can enjoy their meals. Its bright saloon offers all the comforts to relax, maybe with a good book. M/Y JACO offers accommodation in 3 comfortable cabins: one Owner's cabin, one VIP double cabin and one Twin, all with en-suite facilities.

Captain Roberto Aprea, Italian, 45 y.o.

Roberto was born in New York in 1970. Being of Italian origins, he decided to go back to his beautiful Mediterranean island: Sardinia. He soon fell in love with this amazing place and decided to live there. Here he discovered his passion for the sea and started his studies at the Nautical Institute. After taking the degree he attended several trainings and obtained numerous professional certifications. Roberto is working in the yachting industry as Captain since many years and he is definitely a reliable seaman with great experience and always helpful. In his spare time he loves to share his passion for sailing and diving. He is in fact also sail instructor and has got a scuba diving license too. Roberto is moreover an excellent chef who will delight his guests with a genuine Mediterranean cuisine! Italian mother tongue, he speaks fairly good English and Spanish and basic French.

Steward/Deckhand Maurizio Sotgiu, Italian, 28 y.o.

Maurizio was born in the enchanting Island of Sardinia. Since he was very young, he understood his passion for the sea and decided to start a maritime career in the charter industry. He already worked on private and charter yachts, acquiring time after time a great experience. Maurizio is an important addition to JACO's team and he is a precious support for Captain Roberto. He has an excellent character, always smiling and ready to give assistance to the guests onboard. Dynamic, flexible and sociable, Maurizio will be very glad to suggest his guests the best itinerary accordingly with their needs and desires !
