Other informations

The performance and handling of the V58 epitomise the dynamics of the Princess V Class.

At high speeds the sea keeping and directional stability have to be experienced to be appreciated.

The generous cockpit provides flexibility to enjoy this performance in all conditions with folding covers forward and aft of the radar arch, or the option of a hard top with an electrically opening sunroof.

A garage provides space for a wet bike or tender below the large raised sunbed.

Spacious accommodation comprises two double staterooms and one twin-berth guest cabin, as well as a sensational saloon.

Featuring hardwood flooring with an inset circular carpet and quartered grain cherry wood furniture, this is an interior which demands to be seen.

The V58 delivers the ultimate blend of high style and powerboat performance.
