Notes

Entry level in size alone, the SL62 is designed to the specific requirements and wishes of her proud owner. In keeping with the Sanlorenzo tradition of building extraordinary tailor-made motor yachts for 50 years to suit the requirements and style of each individual yacht owner, discerning SL62 yachting enthusiast will appreciate what it is like to build a custom yacht. Built-in typically as a three cabin, three-head yacht, the 62 offers a full beam master, large VIP suites and generous twin-berth stateroom. Layout, style, design and interior decoration, however, can be specifically tailored to an owners individual requirements, a feature offered throughout the Sanlorenzo range.

The flybridge arrangement of modular furniture can also be personalized to your own specific needs and requests. The unique, fold-down transom creates a large bathing platform while at rest and neatly folds away for docking and travel. You will experience the true difference through ultimate customization, unmatched in the market. This clean and immaculate SL62 maintained Nevis is unforgettable in a perfect way by her owner. The interiors, in clear oak make her spacious and bright. Fully equipped for long cruising is immediately available. A lease is in process. Call for every detail.
