Notes

Decisive character, sporty yet elegant design and clean lines are the main assets marking the Aicon 64 Fly. This yacht is designed to offer the owner and guests a relaxing luxury yachting experience, aiming at an harmonious layout of internal and external space. The spacious and fully equipped flybridge, the salon, the dinette, the galley equipped to satisfy any culinary need and the luxurious fully independent cabins allow you to fully enjoy the pleasure of yachting. Design elements such as the large potholes openable, the elegant and precious details blend together the Aicon 64 with a definition of space that exalts its liveability. The living area is accessed from the cockpit via an elegant sliding stainless steel door. You are immediately struck upon entering by the ample space for the master and his or her guests, as well as by the incredible refinement of the décor. The standards of quality are enhanced by the choice of materials, including cherry wood and prized fabrics. The interior design of Aicon 64 is characterized by clean, straight lines, permitting an efficient arrangement of the living quarters. The salon has two opposing settees and a small coffee table for a pleasant conversation nook. The state-of-the-art technological equipment of the Aicon 64 allows passengers to get the most out of the living quarters. This yacht, clean and immaculate, built in 2008 and sold and launched in 2010 is really one of the best Aicon 64 on the market.
