DESCRIPTION

Margaret Ann has all the merits and trademarks of a Dubois yachts, featuring a pilothouse with a raised seating area, outstanding performance and an intelligent placement of running gear. On deck there is a welcome sense of wellbeing when underway, with the foredeck being especially free and uncluttered. The internal layout is a traditional Dubois design, with steps leading down from the cockpit into the pilothouse, where the yacht's dining area is situated around a luxurious walnut-topped table, with the main saloon area another four steps down.

Sleeping accommodation comprises a full-width, master suite and two identical en-suites, twin bedded guest cabins, each of which has an additional Pullman berth over the inboard bed, plus crew quarters of two spacious double-bunked cabins together with a shared shower room. The beautiful design and sailing ability of Margaret Ann inspired us to create our own sailing yacht series, the 95' Pendennis. Margaret Ann has since visited Pendennis Palma in 2013 for short refit works.
