DESCRIPTION

Partnering with Poltrona Frau has done that increase the commercial plus thanks to the international breadth of the two companies, the headboard, side panels of cabins, pilotage and coopilota enjoy the leather upholstery of the renowned company. The internal subdivision of the sleeping area ensures maximum comfort to the owner and his guests, the kitchen is separate from the stern Center Ballroom to provide the owner and guests more privacy. The retractable aft window connects the external cockpit and upper lounge makes rooms bright and enhances the entire boat control, mainly in situation where there are children aboard. To give light to the superior is also the opening hard top, exactly near the console, side openable doors allow electrically forward comfortably without hindrance. As an extension of the hard-top, extends and retracts a fibreglass cover which increases the shadow in too warm days, in the bow, which is the most ventilated area of the boat, there is a dinette with table and a bimini top for Sun protection. Perfect and professional crew. Dive Master.
