Description

Perfect conditions - Keen Seller

P 72 with a high level of customization where technology is the protagonist: unique illumination in the external cockpit, 4 cameras with interface on the instrument deck and controllable from any distance through internet. Unique backlit stern name and logo.

The external cockpit joins the salon to create a single environment. The hard top can slide to open both the salon and the external cockpit. Prestigious atmosphere for the night zone with wide panoramic windows in the master bedroom.

That is a really great occasion to buy one of the more equipped and beautiful Pershing 72 built - full optional included full hull silver metallic paint - only 218 running hours.

The yacht is fitted with a new gangway similar to the one on later models built from 2010. It offers a set up of external and stern logo illumination of great effect (as can be seen in the pictures), Stern Thrust, very important in critical situations, Thermal camera for night vision and navigation, very useful, Double GPS, Double Echo-sounder, Cared for in every detail like dark red colored ropes, fenders and electricity cable....read more and open the full specs or contact us for more infos
